Great interest is felt in the third of the receptions under the direction of Mrs. Caskie Cabell and Mss Bessie Pacs, which takes place Thursday afternoon next. The programme will consist of readings from Eugene Field, with his noems sung, as arranged by Ethelbert Nevins, a commoser of distinction. These will be followed by readings from Kipling, and the singing of the flarrack Ballads, concluding with the "Recessional" as a haritone solo, with chorus. It is hinted that Mrs. Cabell will be assisted in the Kipling readings by Rev. W. A. Barr. The cultural seems to grow steadily—the best possible tribute to their admirable character.

Judge and Mrs. Edmund Waddill have assted invitations to a tea and reception Wednesday next. In honor of their daughters, Misses Juliet and Mary Waddill. The hours for the tea will be 5 to 7, and juring that time the guests will be exclusively married people. From 9 to 11 the younger set will constitute the guests, tague, Boykin, Elizabeth alabon, of Partimore.

A most valuable historical paper was well read by Mrs. Wm. T. Robins. It was entitled, "The Starving Time and The Indian Massacres of 1822–1644." After the meeting Mrs. Claiborne invited the ladies to enjoy her hospitality in the form of a delightful tea. Mrs. W. P. Trent presided at the chocolate table. The young ladies in the dining room were Misses Louise Mayo, Estelle de Saussure, Eloise Bruce, Marion, Ruth and Elizabeth Robins. These meetings of the Dames have gained decided educational value through the custom of reading thoughful and carefully prepared historical papers. The next meeting will be held at Mrs. R. A. Lancaster's residence.

Washington Memorial Association, Mrs. Charles Washington Coleman, of Willamsburg, will attend the annual meeting to be held in Washington on the 14th, 15th and 18th of this menth, stopping at Shore Leave.

NEWPORT NEWS, December 10.—Special.—The First Kentucky Regiment was permitted to come ashore this morning, and unanimously availed themselves of the eppertunity. Never before has so orderly a body of men of that size been seen in this city. It was cold, and the boys had come from a climate where the mercury was overleaping all the laws of decorum. Originaly they were from Kentucky. These two facts will explain the statement that the Loyal Legion put away no small amount of Warwick red eye; then, too, there were so many flue Grasslaus here who persisted in asking the boys to come in and have something. But if every blue coat could have been a Kentucky colonel there couldn't have been less intoxication; and of rowdiness there was none at all. The members of the Loyal Legion behaved like the gentlemen that they are, and at no time during the day was there a scene

Death of Mr John Dunaway, Brother of Dr. T. S. Dunaway.

FREDERICKSBURG. VA., Dec. 19.—
Special.—Negotiations were concluded to-day for the purchase of a portion of the fine estates known as "The Ben" and "Mansfield," in this county, from Mr. John Bernard, by Mr. Henry Warden, of West Virginia, for $14.00.

News has been received here of the death at his home in Lancaster county of Mr. John Dunaway, brother of Rev. Dr. T. S. Dunaway, of this city. He was sixty-six years old, and well known. He died of Fright's disease. Two brothers and three sisters survive him.

Miss Adra Bradbury gave a "tacky perty" last night to her young friends of both sexes, which was greatly enjoyed by all of the participants, as well as by others, who looked on. The greets were mainly members of the J. O. C. Chieb, a young people's social organization, Much interest was taken in the awards of the prizes, which were wend by Miss Lawy Brockenbrough and Mr. Dandridge Filts. Refreshments were served, and it was a lata hour when the entertainment ended.

As a matter of fact Mr. Ralston vas not "sworn in as a deputy United States marshal," and he was not paid anything for his services. He is a personal friend of Marshal Treat, and assisted in the execution simply as a matter of accommodation to Mr. Treat. His motives were humanitarian, said Mr. Ralston, and he thought that there should be some one present who had experience in such matters. He had done nothing in opposition to the law on the subject.

Mr. Ralston served without any compensation or hope of reward, and his poperation of relatives and friends. They
